Retreat Speaker:

Cindy McClanahan

Cindy is a wife of 41 years and has enjoyed ministering alongside her husband, Pat, to both youth and women for just as long. She is a mom of three awesome children. Cindy has been in a personal relationship with God for over 50 years. Although she now truly believes God loves her and lives to return that love, reaching this point has not been an easy journey. After being married four short years, her love for Pat started to wane. This is when God began unveiling to her just how self-serving her love was and how He wished to replace it with His life-giving Love. Her pursuit to learn about His Love was birthed. For 37 years, Cindy has been diligent to study, research, glean, apply, and teach on what God says about love. The deeper she delves the greater He reveals just how vital His Love is to everyone and how desperately we need it. Her heart's desire now is to tell the story of God's Love by letting His Love loose. She hopes others will be drawn to His life-changing Love and be compelled to Let His Love Loose as well.

"You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and foremost commandment. The second is like it, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'"
